

LIGHT RECEIPTS AGAIN THE RULE

GILL NETTERS LANDED 12,700
CODFISH—FEW MACKEREL RECEIVED.

Fresh fish continues to be conspicuous by its absence as far as local landings are concerned, and the sum total since yesterday includes 2700 pounds of mackerel from three small netters, and 12,700 pounds of cod from four gill netters with Capt. Gene LaFond in the C. A. Meister leading the list with 5000 pounds landed at the Producers' Fish Company.

Three of the halibuters came down from Boston yesterday, their holds empty, as well as the haddock William L. Putnam, which also sold her catch in Boston. The Jennie and Julia, one of the mackerel seiners, is spending its enforced vacation by going swordfishing, with Skipper Paul Scola at the wheel.

BUSY WEEK END AT THIS PORT

THE RECEIPTS TODAY INCLUDE
CATCHES OF MACKEREL,
WHITING AND COD

Over 88,000 pounds of mackerel whiting and cod were landed in this port since yesterday, when the small seiners accounted for 51,000 pounds of mackerel, mostly small, and two traps had 27,000 pounds of whiting and mackerel. The gill netters, five of them, had a total of 8000 pounds of cod, while two small jiggers had 1000 pounds. ### Fisheries Official Arrives.

W. Birtwistle, supervisor of fisheries for Straits Settlement, Singapore, arrived in Halifax Wednesday from Vancouver. Mr. Birtwistle is en route to England for a holiday with relatives there. He declined to comment on conditions as he found them in the Far East, but added that they appeared to be no worse than anywhere else.

Capt. Harry Clattenburg does not intend to waste much time ashore for he has planned to leave port today in the swordfisherman Col. Lindbergh, bound to Georges for another search of the fish that spells happiness to the skipper and crew.

Meanwhile, plenty of action is underway as the waterfront workers busy themselves with putting the sch. Gertrude L. Thebaud in shape for her voyage to Chicago and the World's fair, fishing for good-will of the nation-at-large, by showing them a Gloucester fishing vessel, and the leading racer of the fleet.
